

- CANNING · HOUSE -

HABS NO. GA-142

- MACON GEORGIA -

HABS

GA.

II. MACO

4.

PHOTOGRAPHS
WRITTEN HISTORIC AND DESCRIPTIVE DATA
District of Georgia

Historic American Buildings Survey
Harold Bush-Brown, District Officer
Georgia School of Technology, Atlanta, Ga.

HABS
GA.
H-MACO

4-

CANNING HOUSE

Macon, Bibb County, Georgia

Owner: Mrs. Kate Martin Roberson.Date of Erection: 1853-1854.Architect & Builder:

Present Condition: Good. Original right hand wing moved to left side of house; original Greek parapet similar to that of Small House demolished by storm.

Number of Stories: Two.

Materials of Construction: Foundation brick. Wood floors. Exterior walls frame.

Other Existing Records: Article by Mrs. Mary Callaway Jones (Mrs. Frank F.), in Macon Telegraph, Sunday, May 20, 1928.

Additional Data: Built by Asa Holt. Two story Ionic portico, small balcony in center, good light wrought iron work. Recently converted into apartment by Dennis & Dennis, architects, exterior preserved intact, interior not extensively changed. Bullets and cannon balls are said to have passed through this house during Civil War.

Harold Bush-Brown
HAROLD BUSH-BROWN Dec 1, 1936
DISTRICT OFFICER-HABS

fw. Dec 7 '36 T.J.W.